Stories: Favourite First Year Memories

"At the end of the first year of Firstfruits an outstanding memory for me has to be of the birth of the first baby and watching her mum blossom into a confident and happy young woman. Thank you to everyone who has made this possible for these two young precious lives."

-Rachel

"The first time I saw the first baby tucked up in her little crib in hospital, aged 2 days" and "seeing her mum with all of her brothers and sisters and Nan together, celebrating the baby's dedication." - Jan. H.

"My favourite times in the house this year have been all the laughter and the fun times doing crazy things like swimming in the sea in March and playing practical jokes. But the best for me has been all of the wonderful new friends I have made."—Becky

"Rachel coming home from America and going mad when we gave her plastic cutlery and told her we gave the proper ones to my sister for a tea party- haha!" -Mel

"Taking the baby to a firework display was wonderful; seeing her eyes widen, her facial expressions when the fireworks were lit; watching her smile when the rocket exploded; eating hot-dogs with her mum; all made me appreciate the fireworks again!" -Jan M.
